

ITALIAN RESIDENCE MAKING PROCESS (not EU citizens)

1.

From an Italian embassy or consulate require a " visto per dimora" necessary documents (1 original and 1 copy) : passport, or passport and Alien Registration Card. Passport must be valid for at least 3 (three) months beyond the validity date of the requested visa, and must have a blank page available for the visa. - One recent passport size photograph (2x2 inches in size, full face, front view, in color). – an home or apartment rental agreement (justly registered and certified) or home or apartment in Italy purchase deed copy - Proof of financial resources , as Letters from banking institutions stating current available funds (type and account balance). These funds must be more than substantial and must generate revenues , or Documents from other sources that will provide you with additional financial revenues – A nationwide criminal history record (in USA = FBI Identification Record) - Certified copy of marriage certificate, if it applies – Codice Fiscale

2.

To the Italian post office , submit a Request of a Stay Permit for Residenza Elettiva , necessary documents : an home rental agreement or apartment or home in Italy purchase deed copy - Proof of financial resources , from 2023 March required copy of italian bank account with minimum 37000 euro - passport copy - copy of codice fiscale - Duty stamp of 16,00 euro - payment for 30-euro performed at post office - Post office module filled and signed in front to the postoffice employee -

3.

To the Italian's "comune" office require the residence necessary documents : certificate of live birth (traslated , authenticate and legalized from Italian embassy or consulate) - " permesso di soggiorno per residenza " issued by the "questura" – OR – receipt of “ Request of a Stay Permit for Residenza Elettiva” Module issued by post office - an home rental agreement or apartment or home in Italy purchase deed copy - passport copy - Medical Insurance copy , codice fiscale copy